

100 BOOKS BEFORE COLLEGE

The Challenge: Read 100 books before you graduate high school.

For: Students in grades 7-12

Are you up for the challenge?

Sign up online at

<https://wandooreader.com/mtpl/100-books-before-college/users/sessions/new>

Middletown Township Public Library
55 New Monmouth Rd
Middletown, NJ 07748

(732) 671-3700 ~ <http://www.mtpl.org>

Follow us

Twitter @MTPLteens

Instagram @mtplibteens

Why should I take the 100 Books Before College Reading Challenge at the Middletown Library?

Reading will...

- Give you a better vocabulary
- Help you to improve your test scores
- Strengthen your mind
- Enhance your analytical and critical thinking skills!

And if you complete the Challenge you will

- Get a swag bag from The Princeton Review
- Get a free book from the library

100 BOOKS BEFORE COLLEGE

FAQs

Where do I login? Go to the library's Teen Website at <https://www.mtpl.org/teen/> Click on the 100 Books Before College icon.

How do I log my books? Log onto your account online and log the title of each book you read.

Can I write reviews of the books I read? Yes! Select the Challenges tab on your account and you can write reviews of the books you read. Let the Teen Librarian know which books you liked and which you wouldn't recommend.

If enter after 7th grade, can I log the books I've already read ? Yes. If you are starting this program after seventh grade you may type in the books you already read. However, you may only count the books you read while in 7th grade thru 12th grade.

Do you have any reading suggestions? Yes! The Teen Librarian has made a list of 100 books to read before college. You do not have to read the books on the list, but you might want to challenge yourself to read some of them. The list is online and in the Teen Room.

Any other questions? Ask the Teen Librarian, Christine, at canderson@mtpl.org.